PRINCETON, N.J. & ESPOO, Finland – June 17, 2026 – IQM Quantum Computers Oy (fika IQM Finland Oy), a global leader in full-stack superconducting quantum computers ("IQM," "IQM Quantum Computers" or the "Company"), today announced that its Capital Markets Day presentation is now available on IQM's investor site at <https://iqm.tech/ir/IQM-CapitalMarketDay-2026.pdf>, following the event hosted at the Nasdaq MarketSite in New York City on June 15, 2026. The final edited webcast will be posted to and available on the Company's investor relations website in the coming days.

The Capital Markets Day featured presentations from IQM's leadership team, providing investors, analysts, and industry stakeholders with an in-depth look at the Company's financial highlights, business strategy, technology leadership, commercial progress, product roadmap, and long-term vision for accelerating the adoption of quantum computing globally.

Having sold 23 quantum computers to date, more than any other manufacturer, IQM management also hosted a panel discussion with quantum leaders from NVIDIA, Amazon web Services (AWS), and Cambium Ventures, a quantum-focused VC firm. The panel highlighted customer and partner use cases, market opportunities, and some of the key drivers that are helping to accelerate quantum adoption.

As previously announced, IQM and RAAQ have entered into a definitive business combination agreement that is expected to result in IQM becoming a publicly traded company. Upon closing of the transaction, IQM intends to list its American Depositary Shares on the Nasdaq Global Market under the ticker symbol "IQMX," subject to customary closing conditions and regulatory approvals. The business combination is expected to close in mid-2026. Investors interested in investing in IQM ahead of the closing can do so by purchasing shares of Nasdaq-listed Real Asset Acquisition Corp. (Nasdaq: RAAQ), a special purpose acquisition company ("RAAQ").
